Training Overview

The Mainstreaming children with Cerebral Palsy workshop 9 was attended by 15 participants ranging from, general Education teachers, special Education Teachers and advocates.

The training was facilitated by two people- Tobiloba Ajayi of the Let Cerebral Palsy Kids Learn Foundation and Rhoda Odigboh of the Learning Craft.

The Participants left with an understanding of Cerebral Palsy and how it may affect learning methods. They learned how to differentiate lessons and assessments in the classroom and even how to request for accommodations and modifications during high stakes testing such as Common Entrance and the West African Senior Secondary Certificate Examination.

A major highlight of the day was the practical session on creating Individualized Education Plans for the children with cerebral Palsy and how it supports inclusion in the

Our Partners

We are extremely grateful to our partners- corporate and individual who relentlessly support us to keep the training costs low and provide scholarships to those who are not able to afford the discounted training costs.

We are particularly grateful to our headline sponsor for this edition, The Power of A Thousand Foundation for providing training scholarships to 30 teachers from Low cost Private Schools in or around Lagos to attend the training.

Special thanks to: Rhimamory Resources and Super Parents Foundation for sponsoring one parent participant each to attend the training as well.
